

Justin Case: School, Drool, and Other Daily Disasters

Author: Vail, Rachel ATOS BL: 5.2 Interest Level: (MG) F/NF:Fiction

Know the spelling, meaning, and part(s) of speech.

extremely- ADVERB in an extreme degree; exceedingly <extremely cold> predators- NOUN (plural) animals that live mostly by killing and eating other animals mathematician- NOUN a specialist in mathematics

palindrome- NOUN a word, line, verse, number, sentence, etc., reading the same backward as forward; < Madam > <4,004>  gagged- VERB to keep from speaking or crying out loud by stopping up the mouth 2. to cause to feel like vomiting

sinister- ADJECTIVE evil, corrupt; threatening harm or danger impressive- ADJECTIVE having the power to impress the mind or feelings <an impressive speech> decent- ADJECTIVE meeting an accepted standard of good taste (as in speech, dress, or behavior) 2. fairly good (a decent salary)

doomed- VERB condemned; gave judgment against 2. to make sure something bad will happen <the plan was doomed to fail>

admitting- VERB allowing to enter: to let in. 2. confessing <admitting that they really didn't know>

ADJECTIVE a room in a hospital where you wait;

shrugged- VERB to hunch up your shoulders usually to express doubt, uncertainty, or lack of interest complimented - VERB to pay a compliment to; expressed praise, approval, or respect

Word Skill Wordlist: Frequently misspelled words.

(Know the spelling.)

too	because	there	their	a lot
were	said	went	they	favorite
when	friend	know	that's	upon