

Justin Case: School, Drool, and Other Daily Disasters WEEK 2

Author: Vail, Rachel ATOS BL: 5.2 Interest Level: (MG) F/NF:Fiction

Know the spelling, meaning, and part(s) of speech.

ferocious- ADJECTIVE Fierce; savage representative- NOUN a typical example (as of a group or class) 2. A person who represents another ADJECTIVE serving to represent  venomous- ADJECTIVE having or producing venom; poisonous competition- NOUN the act or process of competing nominate- VERB to choose as a candidate for election, appointment, or honor <nominate a candidate for president> clobber- VERB (slang) to strike heavily 2. to defeat without dispute behavior- NOUN the way in which one conducts oneself background- NOUN the scenery that is behind a main figure or object 2. one's origin, education, experience, etc., in relation to one's present character, status, etc.

ADJECTIVE of, relating to, or serving as a background <background noise> underhandedly- ADVERB done in a fraudulent or two-faced way reassuring- VERB restoring confidence again; relieving of anxiety or stress ADJECTIVE related to relieving anxiety or stress <The nurse comforted the frightened patient with a soft, reassuring tone of voice.>

Word Skill Wordlist: Frequently misspelled words.

(Know the spelling.)

know	really	finally	they're	where
with	then	again	once	before our	always	different	until	presents