

Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing

Author: Blume, Judy ATOS BL: 3.3 Interest Level: Middle Grades (MG) F/NF: F

MEANING/SPELLING TEST: Monday, June 1**

Vocabulary Wordlist- Know the spelling, meaning, and part(s) of speech) appointment NOUN a scheduled meeting; a date or engagement attendant NOUN a person whose job is to serve others in some capacity, such as assisting customers; one who waits on another or others; one who accompanies and waits on an important person, such as a ruler commercial NOUN an announcement on radio or television made to encourage the sale of an item; a radio or television advertisement

ADJECTIVE for business purposes, having profit as an aim <commercial real estate> committee NOUN a group of people in charge of certain activities, decisions, or responsibilities

ADJECTIVE <committee meeting> managed VERB succeeded at or achieved after making an effort mugged VERB attacked with the intent to rob operator NOUN one who works or runs a machine, device, or system; one who directs, manages, or puts into motion a job or process pollution NOUN the act or result of including unwanted materials; the spoiling and dirtying of nature; harm caused to Earth by people; contamination or impurity; uncleanness practical ADJECTIVE concerned with actual use; guided by experience and observation; useful; workable; realistic scrub VERB to clean by rubbing hard; to scour ADJECTIVE describes something used for cleaning purposed <scrub brush>

Word Skill Wordlist Review- Know the spelling; homophones- spelling and meaning too because there their a lot were said went they favorite when friend know that's upon with our really then I always finally again different they're once until where before presents we're sometimes didn't heard little through off outside something thought people everybody house would one brother could pretty caught whole morning took believe his it's started beautiful two almost clothes cousin everything getting I'm scared was what everyone sound swimming very who