

What's the Big Idea, Ben Franklin? Author: Fritz, Jean Quiz ATOS BL: 5.5 Interest Level: Middle Grades (MG) F/NF: Nonfiction altogether - ADVERB completely; totally; entirely; wholly apprentice- NOUN one who learns a skill from someone with experience VERB to place or take on as an apprentice poetry- NOUN a form of literature that consists of works that have lines and verses that often rhyme shock - NOUN a feeling or muscle spasm that results from the passage of electrical current through the body or a body part VERB 1. to surprise 2. to subject with an electrical shock tax - NOUN a sum of money paid by individuals and companies to the government to support government services and programs VERB to charge additional monies to cover government expenses

Word Skill Words Inflectional Endings (Spelling Only) agreed	admitted	organized	answered passed	stirred	disguised	supposed grabbed	surprised	wished	scored